

Welcome to Eulert Outpost where dreams take root and grow!

Located in the Front Range of the Rocky Mountains in central Colorado, Eulert Outpost has been owned and operated by Curtis and Ann Eulert since 2000.

Eulert Outpost features world-class amenities including:

Massive great room with gathering area, fireplace, and sweeping vistas. Fireplace doubles as an incineration facility for disposal of combustible trash.

Queen-sized accommodations are available in the sleeping quarters, which double as a dry sauna during the day.

Efficient kitchen with a blend of modern and classic appliances.

Menus feature delicious home-cooked meals, planned by the camp nutritionist and masterfully prepared fresh daily by the camp chef.

Ample parking with easy access to pantry and refrigerated food storage areas.

Massive walk-in closets with ample space for hanging clothes.

And.....

Spacious atrium master bath with excellent ventilation.

Recreational activities are scheduled around a dynamic tapestry of atmospheric conditions which can include extremes in temperature, humidity, sun, and wind, usually all within a few minutes of each other.

During your stay at Eulert Outpost, be sure to enjoy some of the following activities:

- Bird Watching
- Wildlife Viewing (including a wide variety of mammals, reptiles, and insects)
- Plant and Tree Identification
- Wildflower Viewing
- Rock Hounding
- Scenic Viewing
- Star Gazing
- Scat Identification

Also available are numerous self-guided educational hiking tours, including real-world lessons in:

- Climatology
- Orienteering
- High-altitude Athletic Conditioning
- Cold Weather Survival
- Rock Climbing
- First Aid

Reservations available on a first come, first served basis. Call at 281-415-7209 or e-mail curtis@eulertdomain.net for more information!